

Mountain States
ASPEN, COLORADORuth KrugerCommercial and Residential*970-404-4000 | ruth@krugerandcompany.com

A Snow Boarder Assembly in Aspen

Ruth is a true international Real Estate professional having traveled the world and throughout the USA to learn best practices and put them in strategic use for many clients. Consequently, she is known for her innovative approach to complex issues resulting in successful ventures and acquisitions that have led to great success for those who have chosen to engage her services. She studied at Michigan State University and later at Southern Methodist University and, in addition to a vast amount of commercial real estate experience, she has also has a hands-on hotel and restaurant management background, where for five years she was the general manager of the Grand Aspen Hotel. But it is her efforts through FIABCI, the International Federation of Real Estate, where she is known for being an international leader that she has developed her unique style and basic tools to establish herself as "World Class." Ruth knows Aspen like few others and is dedicated to creating a platform of success for her clients whoever they are.