Dream's End

Celebrating 36 years in Real Estate, Ellen Francisco is one of Coldwell Banker's most accomplished agents. She consistently excels among the top one percent in the nation, annually honored as a member of the Society of Excellence, International President's Elite and Top 100 in Southern California. Ellen grew up in West Los Angeles, where she attended Hamilton High School. She received her bachelor's and master's degree from UCLA, and a counseling credential from CSUN. Prior to real estate, she was a well respected counselor and physical education instructor at Santa Monica High School for 13 years. After moving to Malibu in 1970, she contracted the re-building of a home in 1980, which sparked a natural talent and led to the evolution of her successful real estate career. Ellen and her husband of 47 years, Kent, a golf entrepreneur, retired teacher, retired dentist and former football player share their five acre Malibu ranch with a special menagerie of eight horses, four dogs and three pot-bellied pigs. In addition to excelling in her profession, Ellen is also a highly accomplished equestrian. She enjoys raising quarter horses and competing in local and national American Quarter Horse events. Ellen and her horses have received numerous honors and rankings, both locally and nationally.
