

MEXICO

John K. Glaab, CIPSResidential*

1-877-214-4950

Cabo San Lucas Views

Born in Canada, John was educated at the School of Communication and Business administration, Michigan State University. Following a long career in public relations and international marketing, he moved to Mexico in 1994.

John was the first REALTOR® in the state of Baja California Sur, to earn the Certified International Property Specialist (CIPS) designation. He was on the planning committee for the very first ever international resort symposium in Cabo San Lucas. In 2012 he was named International Realtor Member of the Year, by the National Association of Realtors®. Since 1980, he has been involved with international education. He is a Patron of Lester B. Pearson College of the Pacific (United World Colleges) John's articles on real estate have been widely published.

He works in Mexico as Vice President, International Marketing of the country's oldest escrow and title company, The Settlement Company®. John works six months each in the La Paz Michoacán office six months in La Paz, Baja California Sur.