

SANTA FE, NEW MEXICO

Patricia Pipkin*Residential*

505-660-3757 | patpipkin@comcast.net

Traditional Santa Fe

Born in Montana, Pat has lived on both the East and West Coasts. She received a Bachelor of Science from the University of Florida, after which, her first job was at Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. After moving to the Bay Area in California, Pat received her real estate license and has been active in the industry for over 30 years with licenses in California and New Mexico. She strongly believes in professional service by being involved in her industry and community. She knows that this enhances her ability to provide vital information and professional service to consumers in ways and means that really aid the client to understand the underlying issues involved with any transaction. She was New Mexico's 2013 REALTOR® of the year, 2013 National Association of REALTORS® Regional Vice President, Region XI; 2008 President of the REALTORS® Association of New Mexico and 2007 President of the Santa Fe Association of REALTORS®. Pat serves on governmental affairs committees for both the local and state REALTOR® associations where her involvement has focused on protecting private property rights. Pats involvement on the national level is as an expert on resort and second homes.