Dream's End

Joan Rich Mantecón was born and raised in San Francisco, California. She attended school in France as a youngster and moved to Mexico in her late teens to study architecture. In Mexico, she designed and manufactured sportswear and co-owned various stores throughout the country. She focused on international tourism during the twenty years she spent living in Mexico. Joan became a REALTOR® shortly after returning to the United States in 1989. She has a BS in Real Estate Business and Accounting and a BA in International Business. She loves to travel where she has experienced many diverse cultures and learned to appreciate the interaction among people. She works with international clients as well as local clients of the Hispanic community. She is fluent in English and Spanish and semi-fluent in French, and is a member of FIABCI, AMPI, and NAHREP. Associated Realty of the Americas is extremely proud to be affiliated with Joan.
