“The Old West Still Lives in all of its Grandeur”

George Harvey, Owner/Broker of The Harvey Team, has merited the respect of his clients and colleagues alike for his unsurpassed real estate experience and expertise, and for his impressive local, nationwide and worldwide referral network. One of Telluride’s most active and successful real estate professionals since 1984, George has set sales records and earned dozens of industry accolades and commendations. He has served as President of the Colorado Association of Realtors® and is a long-time member of the National Association of Realtors® Board of Directors. Born in small southern town in Magnolia, Arkansas, and a graduate of the University of Arkansas, George is also fluent in “Southern”. He grew up playing golf and was State Golf High School Champion for several years. He still enjoys hitting the links and skiing in beautiful Telluride, ranked as one of the top ski resorts in the country.
