The Majestic Tucson Mountains

Barbara spent 18 years as an executive in the high-tech world and has a background in negotiations, sales and business development. As a former teacher and proponent of education, she earned her Graduate REALTOR® Institute in 2006. She specializes in gated and golf communities and is intimately familiar with what makes the Northwest part of Tucson so special. Barbara enjoys giving back to the community. She served as chairman for the annual fundraiser for the local teen charity Youth On Their Own from 2007-2010. She also sponsors and volunteers for the Stone Canyon Community Foundation, which focuses on helping at-risk youth in the Tucson area.
